OBS Chrome Extension Serial Keygen [Wireshark].Larbia.net.Share Copy the link The second annual talent cruise to the Nordic countries celebrated innovation, accessibility and the potential for entrepreneurs in both Estonia and Sweden with a range of events and activities in Estonia, and Sweden, including the knowledge-exchange workshop entrepreneur@sekoala, and a series of discussions and panel discussions on the impact of Brexit and the future of the financial market in the Nordic countries. The programme included a day of talks and workshops on ‘how to build a startup’, which was supported by the Estonian government and aimed to give practical tips for starting a business, and the creation of a ‘European Startup Hub’. Two Danish speakers – Henrik Elsmark from Danish TalentNet and Soren Strand from the Centre for Entrepreneurship and Innovation at Aalborg University – joined the Estonian speakers for a half-day Q&A session and panel discussions on ‘how to grow a startup’. The knowledge-exchange workshop, ‘entrepreneur@sekoala’, was run on a smaller scale to get a feel for the range of activities available to aspiring entrepreneurs in both countries. The workshop gave Estonian and Swedish entrepreneurs the chance to attend events and discussions on topics relevant to their business, such as web development and marketing.
